Lansing, Mich. -- Physicians Health Plan of Mid-Michigan (PHPMM) has once again been named one of the top ranked commercial plans in Michigan and across the nation in the U.S. News & World Report/National Committee for Quality Assurance (NCQA) America's Best Health Plans 2008-09 list. PHPMM has been a perennial member of America’s top health plans, this year ranking 39th among nearly 700 commercial, Medicare and Medicaid health plans.

“PHPMM has long been a leader in providing high quality clinical care and service,” said Scott Wilkerson, PHPMM President and CEO. “This recognition is a tribute to the constant effort and attention to quality by our staff and to our extensive network of providers and hospitals.”

The 2008-09 America’s Best Health Plans ranking are based on more than 50 aspects of prevention, treatment and consumer experience, such as how quickly members receive needed care.

PHPMM members have access to complete healthcare benefits, from preventive care and routine office visits to hospital care and surgery; and an extensive network of primary care physicians, including affiliations with hospitals, pharmacies, and home health and rehabilitation services. Coverage is available for businesses of all sizes, individuals and families.
